

Descriptions of the 30 Stickers

Sticker 1:

A system in which people participate in making decisions for the country.

Sticker 2:

The responsible action of getting involved in public life.

Sticker 3:

The ability to choose representatives through elections.

Sticker 4:

The principle that allows all eligible citizens to vote.

Sticker 5:

The right to express ideas and opinions freely.

Sticker 6:

A respectful demonstration to communicate citizens' demands.

Sticker 7:

A meeting to discuss and make collective decisions.

Sticker 8:

The fair application of laws for everyone.

Sticker 9:

Equal opportunities and fair treatment without discrimination.

Sticker 10:

Mutual support to strengthen the community.

Sticker 11:

The active involvement of people in public affairs.

Sticker 12:

The supreme law that guarantees rights and responsibilities.

Sticker 13:

The branch of government responsible for governing and administration.

Sticker 14:

The branch responsible for creating and reforming laws.

Sticker 15:

The institution responsible for administering justice.

Sticker 16:

The process through which authorities are elected.

Sticker 17:

A mechanism that allows citizens to make decisions directly.

Sticker 18:

A proposal presented by citizens to promote change.

Sticker 19:

A tool used to remove authorities through voting.

Sticker 20:

Citizen monitoring of public administration.

Sticker 21:

A space to listen to social opinions and needs.

Sticker 22:

A joint decision-making process regarding the use of public resources.

Sticker 23:

Community work to improve the local environment.

Sticker 24:

The involvement of young people in social and democratic causes.

Sticker 25:

The ability to propose solutions within the educational community.

Sticker 26:

The exchange of ideas with respect and reasoned arguments.

Sticker 27:

A value that recognizes different opinions and cultures.

Sticker 28:

Rights inherent to all people.

Sticker 29:

Citizen oversight aimed at promoting transparency.

Sticker 30:

The goal of seeking benefits for society as a whole.